4 / Important Information for Applicants

Category	Details
Application Submission	▶ Applicants may apply to only one academic unit. If applications are submitted to more than one unit, all applications will be void. ▶ Once the application has been submitted, it cannot be cancelled, and changes to the chosen department or any submitted information are not permitted. ▶ Applicants must provide accurate contact information (phone number, mailing address, etc.) so that they can be reached during the admissions period. The applicant is solely responsible for any disadvantages resulting from errors, omissions, or incorrect entries.
Required Documents	▶ All documents must be submitted in their original form. For documents that cannot be reissued, a certified copy must be submitted, either verified against the original by the issuing institution (original verification stamp/seal) or notarized by an authorized notary office (in the case of China, through a public notary). ▶ Any document not written in Korean or English must be accompanied by a notarized translation in Korean or English. ▶ Submitted documents will not be returned under any circumstances. If any submitted document is found to be falsified or if admission was obtained through dishonest means (e.g., proxy attendance at an interview), the admissions offered or enrollment will be revoked. ▶ If the facts cannot be verified solely from the documents submitted by the applicant, the University may request additional documents. Applications with insufficient document to verify the facts will be deemed ineligible. ▶ Applicants who are expected to graduate or complete their program (i.e., currently enrolled at the time of application) must submit their graduation or completion certificate to the Woosong University Office of International Affairs by February 19, 2027 (Fri). Failure to submit the required document by the specified date may result in cancellation of admission.
Additional Notes	▶ The application fee is non-refundable. However, if an applicant is unable to take the Evaluation of Academic Proficiency due to unavoidable circumstances beyond their control, and such circumstances are reported in advance and deemed valid by the university, partial refund of the application fee may be granted. ▶ Evaluation scores will not be disclosed. ▶ Successful applicants must fully cooperate with any requests for academic verification. If the applicant fails to respond to an academic verification request, the admissions offer and enrollment will be revoked. ▶ If an applicant registers at more than one university for the same semester, the admissions offer and enrollment will be revoked. ▶ New students may not take a leave of absence during their first semester of enrollment. ▶ Any matters not specified in this admissions guide will be handled in accordance with separate regulations established by the university. ▶ For further inquiries, please contact the Office of International Affairs: ☎ +82-42-629-6643(English Track) | woosongadmissions@wsu.ac.kr ☎ +82-42-629-6617(Korean Track) | gcadmissions@wsu.ac.kr ☎ +82-42-629-6820(Chinese Applicants) | wsgcc@wsu.ac.kr

11 / Certificate of Admissions

	Details
Issuance Period	December 2026 – February 2027
Issuing Agency	Woosong University (Visa Support Team)
Issued for	Students residing overseas who are required to apply for a visa at the embassy ※ Successful applicants residing in Korea are not eligible for the Certificate of Admission. Applicants will be classified as either domestic or overseas residents based on the residence visa status indicated on their application form.
Issuance Procedure	Admissions Decision ↓ Tuition Payment ↙ ↘ Domestic Residents (with valid Visa in Korea) Directly receive the Certificate of Admissions from the Office of International Affairs and apply for visa change at the visa support team. ↓ Change of residence status or application for extension of stay Overseas residents (without a valid visa) Receive the Certificate of Admissions sent by the Office of International Affairs ↓ Apply for a student visa (D-2) at the Korean embassy in your home country with the Certificate of Admissions. ↓ Apply for a Resident card at the visa support team. (within 90 days after entry)
Note	▶ Students who fail to submit notarized proof of their highest academic qualification (China Academic Degree & Certificate Authentication Report, Apostille, or consular verification) and original Financial Sponsorship Documents during the submission period will not receive the Certificate of Admissions by the university. ▶ Based on the Guidelines for Issuance of Visas and Residence Management for International Students, changing schools within the same level of domestic degree programs (e.g., withdrawing from another Korean university's undergraduate program and enrolling in this university's undergraduate program) is generally permitted. However, students falling under the following categories will be restricted from changing schools: - Those who have received an official notification of violation under Article 18 of the Immigration Control Act. - Those whose combined period of study at the previous and new school exceeds the maximum undergraduate stay period (6 years after admissions).

12 / National Health Insurance Enrollment

▶ Health Insurance System for International Students

1) If you hold a D-2 visa, after registering for a resident card, you will be automatically enrolled as a health insurance subscriber with the National Health Insurance, and will receive the same health insurance benefits as Korean citizens.
2) Subscription procedures: The National Health Insurance Corporation will collectively process the subscription without any reporting procedure
   ※ When reporting a change in residence (place of living), be sure to accurately report the detailed address to avoid any inconvenience caused by incorrect delivery of mail from the National Health Insurance Corporation.
3) For further information, please refer to the National Health Insurance Service (NHIS) - Health Insurance System for Foreigners https://www.nhis.or.kr/nhis/policy/wbhada02400m01.do
